

TRANSCENDENTAL SEXOLOGY

Certainly, we can study the sexology from two different angles; one is the mere official point of view, as is taught in the universities, in the faculty of medicine, etc., and another, is the gnostic point of view. I will explain the sexology, at the light of the Universal Gnosticism.

First of all, Gnosis means Knowledge. The word Gnosis appear in the official science: Diagnosis, diagnostic... in etymology you can see the word Gnosis. The Gnostic movements, know the sexology profoundly.

In the name of truth, I have to say you that Sigmund Freud, with his psychoanalysis, started an epoch of extraordinary transformations in the field of sexology. Sigmund Freud innovated the field of medicine and this known by all of those who have studied Freud. Alfred Adler, was certainly one of his best disciples; Carl Gustav Jung was also his disciple and many other psychologists, psychoanalysts and parapsychologists.

Sex itself, is the center of gravity of the human activities; around sex gravitate all the aspects of the social life. Let us see a dance, a party: the entire party gravitates around the sex, the same in a cafe, everything gravitates around sex.

Today, sex has begun to be studied by some wise men with transcendental purposes; unfortunately, there is an abundance of pornography and the sex is deviated to mere sensual activities.

There are different classes of sex. There exist the Normal Sex, which is the common one, the Infra Sexuality and the Supra Sexuality.

What Normal Sexuality is? Normal Sexuality is the sexual activity orientated to the reproduction of the specie.

Infra Sexuality is different, there are two classes of infra sexuality. In the field of Cabbala, it is say that Adam had two wives: Lilith and Nahemah. Lilith represents the sphere of the infra-sexuals, in this sphere we find the pederasty, homosexuals, lesbians, etc., and in the side of Nahemah, the abusers of sex, pornographics, those that subject themselves to lust, without control of any kind. Those are the two spheres of the infra sexuality.

The Normal Sex, I repeat, is related with the reproduction of the specie.

The sexual pleasure is something legitimate, those that believe sexual pleasure is a sin, that qualified it as taboo or those that have the tendency to believe is something to feel ashamed, are absolutely mistaken.

I repeat, the sexual pleasure is something legitimate and must not be despised, undermined or qualified as taboo. One has the right to the sexual joy.

But let us think in the supra sex, in the supra sexuality. Undoubtedly, the supra sexuality is for the genius, to the transcendental men, to the ineffable women, etc. Jesus of Nazareth, Buddha, Hermes Trismegistus, Mohammed, Lao Tze in China, a Quetzalcoatl among us the Mexicans, Pythagoras, etc., were supra sexual men.

All of us can enter in the kingdom of the supra-sexuality but in order to enter in the sphere of the supra sexuality, first of all, is necessary the normal sex. Infra-sexuals like the lesbians, homosexuals, pederasts, masturbators are not prepared to enter in the kingdom of the supra sexuality. If an infra-sexual want to regenerate himself must begin by attaining a normal sexuality, once it has been attained, he can enter wholly in the path of the supra sexuality.

The regeneration for the homosexuals and lesbians that belong to the sphere of the infra-sexuality is something difficult. Not long ago came to visit me an homosexual; he came from Honduras. That man has a very high intellectual culture and liked the revolutionary ideas of the sexology as are divulged by the Universal Gnosticism, so he told me his tragic history as homosexual.

However, he told me about his desire of regeneration so he could enter in the field of the normal sexuality and afterwards in the path of the supra sexuality. I said to him: "My friend, you do not have any other alternative but to attain the normal sexuality; in this moment you are an effeminate so you will have to begin by getting a woman. First of all, get a woman, get married, regenerate yourself, become a normal man, and the day you are a normal man, the day that you truly like women then you will be prepared to enter in the field of supra sexuality; before that is not possible. In this moment, you are walking through the path of degeneration, you are a degenerated..."

Well, the man did not get offended, in truth he did not have reason to feel so. He said me "I will get a woman, I will get married and I will try to become part of the sexual sex" because he wanted to enter one day in the transcendental spheres of the supra sexuality. I wish him to regenerate himself!

In other occasion came a lesbian saying she needed my counsel, that she really like women, that she had a very serious problem because she was spending a lot of money in certain lady, and that lady was, as we say, "cheating him."

Well, certainly the lady of her dreams had been seen with other ladies in the street and of course that situation made her feel jealousy. That poor lesbian suffered like a man, she cried, beg and asked for counsel like a man (among parentheses, she was a horrible old woman, I do not deny that). I could not less than see her with a terrible repugnancy. Well, I gave her some advices; I said her that the best thing for he was to attain the regeneration, to get a man, to enter in the path of the normal sexuality, etc.

I do not know if that poor old woman regenerated herself but it did not seem to me that she had desires of regeneration because it was really jealous with her lady, jealous with the other ladies that accompanied her lady. She look liked a real "macho" not more nor less.

Observe how horrible is the path of degeneration, the infra sexual way. But in truth not only are infra-sexuals the lesbians, homosexuals, masturbators, etc. No, infra-sexuals are also those who abuse of the sex, those that at each second are changing a lady, those that copulate even 10 to 15 times a day (and there are people like that, I know them). Undoubtedly, people like that, are degenerated, are infra-sexuals even if they believe that are very masculines.

Let us enter now in the path of the normal sexuality. Normal sexuality itself, is something beautiful: the man and the woman get together, love each other, reproduce the specie, live a moderate life, etc. They live, and this is something you have to know, according the interests of nature.

Each one of us is a small machine -we cannot deny it- that capture determined types and subtypes of cosmic energy. Each small machine, each one of us, can capture those types of cosmic or universal energy, transform it automatically and re-transmit them subconsciously to the inner layers of the Earth. So, the Earth itself, is an alive organism, an organism that lives because of us.

I do not mean with this that the plants do not fulfill the same function; it is clear that each plant according to its specie capture determined types of cosmic vibrations that then transform and send them to the inner layers of Earth. About the animal organisms, it happens the same: they capture determined types of energy that transform and re-send to the inner layers of the planetary organism. So, the Earth is an alive organism. We reproduce ourselves in an incessant form through the normal sexuality and that is necessary for the economy of nature.

The sexual joy is a legitimate joy, is not a crime, is not a transgression as many sanctimonious, crack-brained and pietistic believe. However, today with our normal sexuality we are living according the economical interests of nature.

Another thing is the supra sexuality and that is clear. To enter in the field of the supra sexuality means to enter in the path of the extraordinary transformations.

Federico Nietzsche in his book "Asi hablo Zaratustra," speaks about the Super Man. "The time of the Super Man has arrived. The man is just a bridge among the animal and the Super Man: is a dangerous step in the path, a dangerous look backwards; everything in him is dangerous. The time of the Super Man has arrived..." Well, Hitler interpreted Nietzsche in his own way. During the second world war even the most insignificant German police was a Super Man; none felt small in the times of Hitler, in Germany everybody was a Super Man. It seems that Hitler, even with very good intensions, did not know to interpret Nietzsche.

I frankly say you that I believe in the Super Man but I think that Hitler took the wrong way. It is possible to attain the highs of the Super Man but this can be possible only through the transmutation of the sexual energies and this already belongs to the field of the supra sexuality.

In the human being there are five fundamental centers:

1. The Intellectual: is the most utilized by you, for the study.
2. The Emotional: that is in the heart.
3. The Motor: that is in the superior part of the spinal column.
4. The Instinctive Center: that is in the inferior part of the spinal column.
5. The Sexual Center.

I will repeat again, so you can keep it in the memory: Intellectual, Emotional, Motor, Instinctive and Sexual. These centers are fundamental for the human activities.

About the sexual center, I want to say you that is the center around who all the human activities gravitate.

The thought, apparently is very fast but unfortunately is very slow. If you are driving a car and suddenly in a moment of danger you start analyzing what you have to do, if to move forwards or pass the car, to move backwards or apply the brakes, it happens that you crash and the catastrophe comes.

The Motor Center is faster. When one is driving a car, does not have time to think: acts quickly and then overcome the problem but if in that moment acts the thought, will happens that we crash. How many times one is driving the car and happens that in a determined moment one is undecided: "Do I have to turn right or left?" and the result is a failure. So, the center of the thought is very slow; the motor center is faster.

The Emotional also is a fast center but there is not one faster than the Sexual Center.

One, been a man, see a woman and in a thousandth of a second knows if she harmonizes with one. However, all of this happens in thousandth of a second. You, the young people know this; you can be in front of a girl but instinctively, automatically know if she matches with your own "wave;" that is done very fast. So, it is a center that allow to register with an extraordinary speed the other pole.

But let us analyze some other factors. Many times a man lives happily with his wife, he loves her; however, he feels that lacks something. Certainly, can happens that one does not feel complete with her or that she fill up the activities of the Emotional Center but perhaps she does not harmonize with one in the intellectual field or perhaps in the sexual field they do not match and when he find another lady, can happens that the other one really match with one and the comes what is called the adultery.

I do not come to speak about adultery. In certain occasion, there was a place in where many adulterers were drinking heavily; one of them inebriated for the wine said: "Hurrah the adultery!" No, I do not come to praise the adultery because that would be absurd; but I see the causes of the adultery.

Many times, one of the couple does not have affinity with the other in the five centers level, and possible that affinity is found in another person, so that is the origin of what is known as adultery.

Let us suppose the case of a man that complement himself with a woman emotionally but sexually not. It may happens that he can find a lady that complement himself sexually. Let us suppose that a man complement himself mentally with a woman but emotionally not. It can happen that he will find a woman that complement himself emotionally.

It can happen that in the world of the habits a man does not complement himself with his wife but can happen that he find in the world of the habits (related with the Motor Center) another woman which whom really complement himself, with whom he feels affinity. This is the intrinsic cause of so many adulteries that originate the divorces.

As I say, I do not come to praise the adultery because that would be absurd and I am do not agree neither with that lady that in the celebrated orgy screamed: "Hurrah the adultery!" No my friends, I do not agree with that, I am just studying with you in partnership the sexual field and we could not omit the adultery itself.

I believe that the best for one is to find a woman that complement oneself in the Intellectual, in the Emotional, in the Motor Center or world of the habits, in the Center of the Instincts and in the Sex, that is to say, the ideal couple, the perfect one. And I believe that the ideal would be for the woman to find a man with whom she could complement herself wholly; then there would be truly happiness.

One of the serious reasons of why cannot exists happiness is the field of the temperaments. A man of ardent temperament is impossible that he could be happy with a woman that is a piece of ice. The very fact of kissing her and in that moment he finds that she does not want kisses is really serious. Now, what could we say about the copulation, about the moment of copulation with a cool woman? Remember the book titled "Silohe, the Egyptian." It happens that in Egypt there were places for the mummification of the bodies. There were many places, places of dirt where the cadavers were mummified and those that worked in those places smelled of dirt wherever they went so any woman liked that class of men that smelled so ugly, that smelled of putrefaction. Been them in the putrefaction, do you know what that class of mummifiers used to do? They copulated with the cadavers of the women that were delivered to those places. Do you think that such a thing is pleasant: to copulate with cadavers? That happened in Egypt.

Well, what would you say about a man of ardent temperament that has to copulate with a "woman of ice," with a cadaver? That is frightfully horrible.

It is absolutely truth that there exists the temperament that we could call bilious: heavy and torpid people. For example, a woman of torpid temperament that is slow in her movements and that possess a heavy nature is impossible that could match with a nervous temperament. Impossible! Another impossible thing is that a man of nervous temperament could match with an ardent woman.

So, the temperaments are very important. Not only is necessary the affinity among the different centers of the organic machine: Intellect, Emotion, Movement, Instinct and Sex but also to have affinity of temperaments. Only in this form, existing affinity of temperaments and perfect inter-relation between the different centers of the machine can exist the authentic affinity that will bring happiness.

However, in this moment I am speaking of the normal sexuality. My friends, the supra sexuality is different. In order to enter in the field of the supra sexuality, first of all, it is necessary to transmute the creative energy. We have to think in the sex not only as something physiological. You have to know that in the sex there exists energy. Einstein said: "Energy is equal to the mass multiplied by the speed of light squared." He also said: "The energy transforms itself in mass and the mass transform itself in energy." Is it possible to transform the mass in energy? Of course!

Observe what happens with the puddle of water in the highway. With the worm of the sun, that water dries up and finally becomes clouds and in last synthesis in energy: in rays and thunders. All the waters of the oceans and rivers become clouds and finally and rays and thunders, that is to say, energy. The same happens with the Ens Seminis. What the Ens Seminis is? It is the entity of the semen, that is to say, the sacred sperm.

Today, there exists the tendency to take the sperm as just a substance excreted by the sexual endocrine glands. The word "sacred" in relation with the sperm looks like "out of wave." However, if you study carefully the "Psychoanalysis" of Sigmund Froid you will see that he says: "The religions in last synthesis, have a sexual origin." I agree with Freud in that sense. If you agree with it, good and if you do not its O.K.

When one observes the religions of the natives, for example, the religions of the different tribes of Indo-America or Africa or Asia, one can verify directly that in all those religions, in all those cults, there is mixture between the sexual and the mystical, that is to say, the religious with the erotic: the Gods and Goddesses are in erotic postures, copulating. The most interesting is that those postures were sacred in the land of the Vedas.

Among the Trojans there existed what we could say, something mere lustful but in Creta there were great processions in where the priestesses walked with huge Phalluses. In those times the phallus was not taken as something vulgar like today but used to received a true cult.

The Yoni, that is to say, the sexual feminine organ also received cult. There is not doubt that the lance which what it is said Longibus wounded the side of the Christ, is the living representation of the Phallus. There is not doubt that the Cup, Chalice or Holy Grail for what the knights of the middle ages fought when they went to the Holy Land during the time of the eucharistic crusades, represent the feminine Yoni, the eternal feminine. So, in the field of the supra sexuality, the chalice and the lance are sacred.

The sperm is sacred because in the sperm is contained our own personality. The medieval alchemists saw in the sperm the Vitriol, that is to say: Visita Interiore Terram Rectificatum Inveniam Ocultum Lapidum. "Visit the interior of our Earth and rectifying you will find the occult stone."

But what is the stone that the medieval alchemists talked about? It is the famous Philosopher's stone. That stone has to be fabricated and there is not doubt that there exist formulas for its fabrication. I believe in the Philosopher's stone but it has to be made; through the sacred sperm and its transmutations is possible to attain the Philosopher's stone. The transmutation of the sexual libido can transform the sperm in energy when the clue is known. What really counts is to know the clue.

If with the Ens Seminis we can procreate a son, if with the Ens Seminis we reproduce the specie, if with the Ens Seminis we can fill the Earth with millions of human beings then as a matter of fact, with the Ens Seminis, that is to say, with the entity of the semen we can give life to ourselves and become true Super Men in the most complete sense of the word.

Now, what really counts is to reach the transmutation of the sexual libido. Through the transmutation we "cerebrize" the semen and "semenize" the cerebrum. It becomes necessary to "semenize" the cerebrum, gentlemen, because is very well known by the scientists that not all the areas of the brain are functioning.

Today is known in medicine that only a minimum party of our brain is fulfilling its functions. Undoubtedly, we have many inactive areas. If we the small part of the active brain we have reached the creation of atomic spaceships that travel to the Moon, we have reached the creation of the atomic bomb with which were destroyed the cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, we have created super sonic planes that travel at an extraordinary speed, how it could be if we would put in activity all the parts of our brain, if the totality of the encephalic mass would work? Then, we could transform this world and to make something marvellous of it. Therefore, is necessary regenerate and "semenize" it: to "cerebrize" the semen and "semenize the cerebrum. That is the clue.

Is it possible "semenize" the cerebrum? The great musicians of the past like Beethoven, Chopin or Liszt were men that had a very "semenized" brain, they were men that gave to their brain extraordinary capacities and that utilized the major percentage of the cerebral areas. However, the things are very different today: the human brain has degenerated itself a lot and we do not realize this.

If we are in the middle of a party, if we are in tone with the "last wave," if we are in the mere Rock and Roll and suddenly somebody takes off the disc and puts the Ninth Symphony of Beethoven, how would you feel? We are sure that you would not continue with the party. What would you do? Of course, you would not go to insult the head of the house but you would leave the house, is not it?

Why? In the middle ages, when the brain had not been degenerated as much as now the things were different, people danced the waltzes or with the rhythm of the classic music. The musicians were in the diner playing the most delicious symphonies; in that time were hit Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin, Liszt.

That was the middle ages gentlemen but now we are not in that times. If now somebody plays that music we just say good bye and leave! Why? Because we become bored. And why we become bored? Let us be analytical, we are here in order to analyze. Just because the brain is degenerated, because there are certain areas that already cannot appreciate the good music. Why the brain became degenerated? It has been degenerated just because we during many centuries have been extracting from our organism the entity of the semen. We have not extracted it just to give life to other creatures; no, we have extracted it because we liked, because is a great placer and that is all. Because we have satisfied the lust in the beds of placer but the one that has paid for it has been the brain and now happens that many areas are not working.

Yes, is possible to regenerate it but in order to regenerate it is necessary to transmute the entity of the semen, to transform it in energy. Only in this form we could "cerebrize" the semen.

What we would need in this lecture is to say how we can do it. I will have the pleasure to explain you a very singular artifice that the medieval alchemist taught to their disciples. The artifice that I am going to teach was also taught by the men of the modern science like Brown Squard in the United States. It was also taught by Krumm Heller, Doctor-Colonel of our glorious Mexican Army, by Jung and it is taught by the Asiatic schools of the Oriental tantrism.

This is not something particular or that belongs to me, I learned it from those wise men and I transmit it to you not like an article of faith or unbreakable dogma. No, If you want to accept it, do it; if you do not want to accept it, do not do it. Many schools have accepted it, many schools have rejected it; each one is free to think anything, I am just giving to you my modest opinion.

This is the artifice: Connection of the Lingam-Yoni. Lingam, you already know that Lingam is the Phallus. Yoni, you already know that is the uterus, the eternal feminine, the sexual organ of the woman. Connection of the Lingam-Yoni without the ejaculation of the entity of the semen. Doctor Krumm Heller used to give the clue in Latin, and he said: "Inmisio Miembro Viril In Vagina Femina Sine Ejaculatum Seminis."

Some modern scientists have accepted this clue; the Oneida Commune in United States experimented this formula. Observe what they did in the Oneida Commune: About twenty-five couples begun working with the sex. They were ordered to copulate during certain period of time but without the ejaculation of the entity of the semen. Then they were subjected to clinical studies. Then, it was observed the complete "semenization of the brain, the increase of hormones in the blood, the complete improvement of the organism, the strengthen of the sexual potence and many illnesses disappeared.

When the scientists decided that was necessary procreate sons, then they gave the permit to copulate having seminal ejaculation.

Anyway, the interesting point of this ancient artifice that constitute the secret secretorum of the medieval alchemists is that the sexual glands never reach the degeneration. You know very well that when the sexual glands become degenerated also the hypophysis and glands of internal secretion. The entire nervous system pass through processes of degeneration and then comes the decrepitude and the death.

Why the oldness exists? Because the sexual glands have become decrepit. When the sexual glands become decrepit, all the endocrine glands also become decrepit and then appears the process of decrepitude and oldness. However, it could exists a system that would allow the not degeneration and decrepitude of the sexual glands, then, the entire nervous system could be preserved in perfect activity, therefore, it would not exist decrepitude nor oldness; that is obvious.

Therefore, through this subtle artifice: connection of the Lingam-Yoni without the ejaculation of the Ens Seminis (as the famous doctors Arnold Krumm Heller and Brown say) it is possible to conserve the sexual glands active the entire life. This means that a man that practices this system will reach the age of 90 and 100 years still with capacity for the copulation, for the enjoyment of the sexual pleasure -that is a legitimate pleasure or sin, that is not a taboo and that has not be a reason to feel ashamed or to dissimulate, etc.,- and I repeat it again, is a legitimate right.

Now, through the transmutation of the entity of the semen in energy, extraordinary physiological changes are processed: the pineal gland is developed. That gland was active in remote times; then the human being possessed the eye of which Homer in his "Odyssey" speaks about: the Eye of the Laecertians, the eye of that terrible giant that tried to devour him. The Eye of the Laecertians is not a mere legend without foundations. Through the sexual transmutation, that gland is developed and become active again; that is the eye that allow us to perceive the ultra of everything.

Our world is not just of three dimensions as the "illustrious ignoramuses" believe; our world exists in a fourth vertical, and we can even affirm emphatically that it exists in a fifth, sixth and seventh verticals. This means that we have never seen our world as truly is, and we have not seen it because our five senses are degenerated and because our pineal gland is atrophied. There exist other senses of perception that also are degenerated. If we can attain their regeneration, we will be able to perceive the world as it is, with its seven dimensions.

So, the cruse reality of the facts is that through the sexual transmutation it is possible to regenerate the pineal gland and the other senses that are atrophied. In this form we could have access to extraordinary knowledge, to the superior dimensions of nature and cosmos, we could see, listen and touch the great realities of the life and death; we could capture the entire cosmic phenomena as they really are and not as they apparently are.

The transmutation is the key, to change the sperm, to modify it in energy. The time has come to comprehend all of this wholly.

If a man would commit himself to fulfil that simple formula, the artifice that was taught by Brown, Krumm Heller and the medieval alchemists, I could say you emphatically and with absolute security that such a man in the long run would transform himself in a Super Man.

We need to feel the necessity to change, to transform ourselves in something different if we are not reactionary, because the conservator and backward people do not want to change. However, when one is truly revolutionary, one wants to be different and to change fundamentally, to become a Super Man and to do of the Nietzsche's doctrine a reality.

It is possible to change through the sexual transmutation. The sexual force brought us to the field of life and you cannot deny that. We exist, live because we had a father and a mother. In last synthesis, the root of our own life is in the copulation of a man and a woman. Now, if the sexual force, if the energy of the sex had the power to bring us into the field of life, obviously is the only one that has authority to transform us radically.

In the world there are many ideologies and believes. Everybody is free to believe what they wants but the only force that has authority to transform us, is the energy that created us, the one that brought us into the field of life; I am talking about the sexual force. To learn to handle that marvellous energy of the sex means to become lord of creation.

When the sacred sperm is transformed in energy, extraordinary psycho-somatic changes are operated. We well know what those hormonal cups of our gonads are, how they work and how the hormones pass from one cup to another to finally reach the prostate through the spermatic channels. We well know how valuable is the prostate: on it are produced the most great transformation of the entity of the semen and the hormones finally enter in the blood system.

The word hormone comes from a Greek root that means "yearning of been," "force of been." The hormones have been studied by the scientists, are marvellous! The sexual hormones when enter in the blood system generate wonders. When they touch the endocrine glands, the thyroids, the parathyroids, the suprarenal glands, thymus, etc., etc., stimulate them and make that those small micro laboratories produce more and more hormones, and all of those hormones produced by the glands enrich the blood system extraordinarily; then the pains and illnesses disappear.

Unfortunately, today the prepared sperm that ascends to the prostate is wasted and the famous spermatozoid not even have the time to be decomposed among the hormones when is already been spelled out of the organism. Many times the entity of the semen cannot even ascend from the testicles to the prostate, when is already eliminated.

Talking about the masturbators, what could we say? You know very well what the vicious of the masturbation is. When somebody masturbate himself, undoubtedly is making a transgression against nature; after the ejaculation of the entity of the semen, there is a peristaltic movement in the phallus and this is known for any man. With that movement, the phallus takes always from the uterus of the woman the energy that needs in order to nourish the brain. However, with the masturbation everything is different; the phallus during the masturbation absorbs the cool air with the peristaltic movement and in this form many cerebral faculties become extinct.

Many have been those that have gone to the madhouse because of the abominable vicious of masturbation. A brain full of air is a brain stupid in one hundred percent. So, we condemn that vicious completely.

It is different when the sacred sperm is transmuted in energy but this only is possible during the copulation avoiding at any cost the ejaculation of the Ens Seminis because as it was said by the best medieval wise men, within itself there is the Ens Virtutis of the fire, that is to say, the igneous entity of the fire.

To enrich the blood to me is not a transgression; to transmute the sperm in energy is very well documented by men like Sigmund Froid and many others. Then, what really counts is to make good use of the sexual potence in order to "semenize" the brain and to develop the pineal gland the hypophysis and others. In this form, one would attain a marvellous organic transformation.

The psyche-somatic field is intimately related with the sexuality. A supra sexuality means also something supra sexual in the field of the psyche-somatic. For this reason I say you clearly that Hermes Trismegistus, Quetzalcoatl, Buddha, Jeshuah Ben Pandira, that is to say, the Great Kabbir Jesus were supra sexuals. They were the supra sexuals; the supra sexual man is the Super Man of Nietzsche.

One can reach the highs of the Super Man entering in the field of the supra sexuality, knowing to enjoy the bve and the woman, knowing to live with happiness, with more emotion and with less useless reasoning. The emotion is what counts and is more valuable than anything.

So, from a revolutionary point of view, we can become true God-Men if we want it. It would be enough to regenerate the areas of the brain, to make them work and then we would make of the world something better. However, I believe and is indispensable to know it, that the clue for the regeneration is also the clue for the regeneration.

The wise men of ancient times spoke about the solar fire that exists in every organic and inorganic matter. Naturally, that fire is inclosed in the seminal system of man. Of course, it is not a physical fire, is a fire of supra dimensional, psychologic and metaphysical kind.

That Fohat (word that means fire of strictly sexual kind) that all of us feel during the copulation can unfold and develop in order to ascend from our seminal system through the spinal medullar channel. When that fire ascends, awakes powers that we ignore, extraordinary powers of perfection or better to say, of extra sensorial perception; power that divinise. But it is necessary to awake it through the transmutation of the libido knowing to enjoy the love. The woman can also awake them, knowing to enjoy her male.

With that fire it is possible to do prodigies. The Orientals call it Kundalini and is marvellous. Our Mexican ancestors used to call it Serpent because they said that has the form of a sacred serpent that ascends through the spinal medullar channel.

The Orient know about the existence of seven centers which are located in the spinal column, magnetic centers that can be perfectly studied with the help of very special plaques, magnetized needles and other methods of investigation.

The first one is in the coccyx and when become active confers determined powers over the earth element.

The second in at the level of the prostate and confers powers over the liquid elements of our organism.

The third is at the level of the navel and once awakened allow us to manage our ardent temperament and even to act over the universal fire.

The fourth is in the level of the heart and is obvious that confer certain extraordinary faculties such as telepathy, intuition and many others.

The fifth is at the level of the thyroids gland (that secrete the biological iodine) and confer us certain extraordinary psychic powers; that is to say, the clairaudience, the power to listen the sounds of the ultra.

The sixth is at the level of the eyebrow and confer us the power to perceive the superior dimensions of nature and cosmos.

The seventh is at the level of the pineal gland and give us the power to see by ourselves the mysteries of life and death.

So, all these faculties are in latent state within our organism and can be awakened with that extraordinary fire that Hindustani call Kundalini and that ascends through the medullar channel because of the sexual transmutation. However, in order to reach those highs it is necessary to work with this secret secretorum the entire life. He that do so, will transform himself in a Super Man and will be able to penetrate in the amphitheatre of the cosmic science, in the university of the pure science and resolve problems that official science does not have resolved yet.

** As you say, the copulation is done trying of not ejaculating the entity of the semen, so what do you want to attain with that?

*** All what one wants with this simple artifice taught by Brown Squard and the Oneida commune is to copulate without the ejaculation of the entity of the semen because the wise men say that through this artifice one attains the transformation of the sacred sperm in energy. So, what ascends to the brain is not the sperm (otherwise we would become crazy) but the energy of that sperm. That is called transmutation.

One can enjoy the sexual pleasure without debilitate oneself. Normally, after the copulation, one feels a bit of repugnance but if one does not ejaculate the entity of the semen, after the copulation one feels desire of repeat it a million times and always happy enjoys it without debilitate oneself never. This is what the Oneida commune is teaching in the United States and that is what Jung taught. This is what the best wise men of the Earth are teaching in all the corners. That is all!

** What is the entity of the semen?

*** Well, when we speak about the entity of the semen, we are talking about the sacred sperm, the semen itself. However, using a most delicate language is called entity of the semen, and even in a most delicate form (so, people do not get scare) is called Ens Seminis. Another question?

** Those that normally are called masochists, in what kind of sexuality would they be classified?

*** Well, the masochist has some similitude with the sadistic but instead of abuse others -like the sadistic and as the marquis of Sade so happily preconized it- feels pleasure mortifying himself horribly. Certainly is an infra sexual that belongs to the sphere of Lilith, speaking in the language of the ancient wise men.
